Wisdom of the Saints

Being holy means living exactly as our Father in heaven wants us to live. You will say that it is difficult. It is. The ideal is a very high one. And yet it is also easy. It is within our reach. When a person becomes ill there may be no appropriate medicine. But in supernatural affairs, it is not like that. The medicine is always at hand. It is Jesus Christ, present, in the Holy Eucharist, and He also gives us His grace in the other sacraments which He established." St. Josemaria Escriva (19th-20th centuries)

We are a Catholic ministry that collaborates with aid partners who employ a community-oriented aid strategy and who strive to increase the self-sufficiency of the poor. For larger, more advanced partners, we provide not only financial and material resources, but also handle the vital functions of monitoring, reporting and financial accountability. They, in turn, offer that all-important grassroots connection to the community – absolutely vital to the provision of humanitarian aid.

Rev. Robert E. Nee, LICSW, BCC – Fr. Nee is from Boston, MA and was ordained in April of 1971. Rev. Robert Nee will be celebrating the Masses at St. Ignatius on May 25th and 26th.
