January 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation

January 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation because it is the feast of Mary the Mother of God. This feast helps bring home the reality of the incarnation, that God did not simply briefly appear in human form, but actually inseparably and eternally united himself to a human nature. In Jesus, God truly became man and that man had, and still has, a mother. So affirmed the Ecumenical Council of Ephesus in confirming the title of Mary as Mother of God.

Mass times: December 31st Vigil 4:30PM and January 1st 8AM (no 6:15AM Mass)

“Christmastime shows us how small God made Himself. Go to the crib and see how small He became, how He lived that total surrender to the full...See the joy of the Child Jesus and the joy of Christmas! Never be moody, never let anything take away that joy.”
